This course aims to provide participants with a practice framework for working with families of children & young people. Developing key skills and knowledge around the care and protection of children and young people. There will also be an opportunity to explore values, attitudes and practice that can impact on this area of work.

The course is aimed at practitioners, team leaders and managers from all agencies involved in the care and protection of children and young people. Also relevant to practitioners, team leaders, managers involved in the provision of services to adults who are parents/carers of children/young people where there may be concerns that the needs of children/young people are not being met.

i.e. adult mental health workers, drug and alcohol workers, those who work with adults with learning disabilities and those who work in other community settings with adults who have contact with children/young people.

Course Provider:

Maureen Devlin
